H. E. Wang Kaiwen
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the People's Republic of China to Georgia
52 Barnov Street, 0179
Tbilisi, Georgia

SUBJECT: Tamar Chachibaia

Dear Mr. Ambassador,

On behalf of our University, I would like to express my gratitude for your most generous and friendly support of our programs, especially our teaching of the Chinese language and culture to Georgian citizens and Russian to our Chinese students. And, of course, we always enjoy the visits of the Honorable Gu Ping, who communicates

It is my special privilege and pleasure to commend to you one of my most talented and dedicated Ph.D. candidates, Tamar Chachibaia, who is eager to travel to China in connection with her research in nanotechnology in the public health sector.

Tamar is bright, diligent, personable, and highly professional. She is a physician who cares deeply about other people. Moreover, she has all the qualifications of a first-rate researcher.

Tamar Chachibaia has my unqualified endorsement for an exchange opportunity in China.

Sincerely,

Dr. Edward R. Raupp
Chancellor
